

House Resolution No. 844

Whereas, the members of the Missouri Senate pause in their diverse legislative endeavors in order to express a heartfelt welcome visitors who are in our state as part of activities designed to enhance the quality of life in local communities and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, on Friday, March 2, 2007, Dr. Farrah Gray will be the featured speaker at “The Path to Greatness-An Evening with Dr. Farrah Gray” sponsored by Entrepreneurs Organization of Kansas City; and

Whereas, Dr. Farrah Gray has attained considerable success as an entrepreneur and author who began his personal and civic development ventures at the tender age of six by the door-to-door selling of homemade body lotion and hand-painted rocks in his Chicago neighborhood; and

Whereas, “An Evening with Dr. Farrah Gray” will be the highlight of EntrepreneurshipWeek USA events sponsored by the Kauffman Foundation, the New York Times, and Inc. Magazine between February 24 and March 3, 2007; and

Whereas, Dr. Farrah Gray co-founded the Urban Neighborhood Enterprise Economic Club at the age of eight in Chicago's south side as the forerunner of the New Early Entrepreneur Wonders organization that he subsequently opened on Wall Street in New York City, which enlists, educates, and engages “at-risk” youth by creating and developing legal ways for them to acquire additional income; and

Whereas, Dr. Farrah Gray went from public assistance to self-made millionaire by the age of fourteen, and at the age of twenty-two he is an illustration of the concept of “Rich from the Inside Out” that is promoted in his book, Reallionaire;

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, extend our warm welcome to Dr. Farrah Gray and thank him for gracing our state with his wisdom and experience; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Dr. Farrah Gray.
